Scripture:

Luke 12:34 "For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also." (NKJV)

(Please note that last week's scripture should have been Luke 12:31)

Message:

You have many things around you and you place a different value on each of them. For example you have a number of toys and you play with some more than the others. You may play with the bicycle more than the bat and ball. Or the dolls, more than the tea set. You may like cookies and ice scream more than crackers and cheese. Chicken may sound better to you than a piece of fish. You simply prefer certain things and will go the extra mile to make sure you get some or most of it because it is important to you.

It is also important to place a high value on the things of God and anything that is God-like. When you value God and what He can do for you, then indeed you treasure who He is and can be. To value God is to hold Him high in your heart. To value what He can do for you is to make Him special to you. God is special and what do we do with special people? We stick close to them and do things to make the bond tighter. It is a treasure to have a close relationship with Jesus Christ for He can do so much for us if we only open our hearts and let Him in.

THE ORDINARY	YOUR TREASURERS

(Answer from last week)

Why worry when you can pray,
Seek Jesus He will make a way,
Don't be like a doubtful Thomas,
Just rest upon His promise,
Why worry worry worry when you can pray.
