Scripture:

Psalm 139: 23-24 Search me, O God, and know my heart; try me, and know my thoughts, and see if any wicked way is in me; and lead me in the way everlasting. (MKJV)

Message:

When we lose something precious, we search for a long time until we find it. If something is making us ill, we go to the doctor or hospital to find out what is the problem and how things can be made right. If we are worrying about all that is happening in our lives, how things will turn out or unfold, we turn to Jesus to work it through for us. We also ask the Lord to search out hearts and see what is bothering us, what is making us worry.

Added to that, we try to make sure there is no wickedness in us, causing us to stumble or fall. It can sometimes be the wickedness in our lives causing us not to see or hear what God is trying to show or tell us. It should be our desire to be clean and live as pure as possible which will lead us into the light of Jesus. We do not have to be worrying all the time about our lives. Allow God to search you and clean you in such a way which would leave you free to serve Him.
