TOTALLY TRANSFORMED

December 20 – Cleansing

Scripture:

Isaiah 1:18, 19 Come now, let us reason together, says the LORD: though your sins are like scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they are red like crimson, they shall become like wool. If you are willing and obedient, you shall eat the good of the land. (RSV)

Message:

A clean life is a Godly life. God cannot dwell in confusion, neither can He work through a life that is confused. An unclean life is one that is disorderly and sin has clouded the judgement of the individual. But it does not have to remain that way. If your life is clouded with and by sin, when you confess your sins to Him, things can change and turn around so that God can use you as an instrument to influence others.

A Godly life is a clean life. The rewards of a clean house is a clean environment in which to live. The rewards of a clean life is one that is free of sin, free of burdens and God can work with that. Our verse says we have to be willing and obedient and with that, the benefits are great. The stress then is on making and keeping our lives clean. Also, in making the change from a sinful existence to a clean one, it becomes one to be used by God. It is said that cleanliness is next to Godliness so to aim for a clean life is to aim for a Godly life.
