Scripture:

Ecclesiastes 7:1 A good name is better than fine perfume. (NIRV)

Message:

There are many material things we consider to be precious and important. We place high value on what we possess or maybe on some of the people in our lives. We think more of our relationships with people than our relationship with our Lord. Precious to us is what we own rather than what is healthy. There are many good and healthy aspects of life we need to strive for and when we gain them, we would be richer. One of the chief things is good character and a good name. To have a good name is to seek to do what is good, have a proper and sound judgment of things and people.

To have a good name is to be known for doing the correct thing, living the right life, being a good example and letting the beauty of Jesus be seen in you. In other words, being the best you can be at all times and in all situations and occasions. It is all about watching the company you keep and are you being a leader or a follower. A leader in the right direction and not a follower in wrong doing. A good name is precious as it takes very little to destroy it as well as your character. Aim for good character and a good name.
