Scripture:

2 Corinthians 9:6,7 But this I say: He who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and he who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. 7 So let each one give as he purposes in his heart, not grudgingly or of necessity; for God loves a cheerful giver. (NKJV)

Message:

The person who is mean when it comes to giving will always be giving a little at a time. They would never give a lot and they would not think of giving anything extra. These persons cannot understand why they in turn only receive a little at a time and sometimes nothing much to talk about. The person on the other hand who is always giving, always sharing, trying their best to make others happy in a positive way, will always receive a lot in return.

If you give a little, you will get a little. If you give a lot, you get a lot in return. We give according to the need and we make sure to put our hearts into it. We should not then give and either take it back or wish we had not given it at all. In giving with all our heart and giving honestly, we are told that God loves a cheerful giver. So give of your best, give willingly, share whenever you can for it is those kinds of people God will bless more than they can give.

Activity:

Use the words below to complete the verse

Sows reap mind loves giver

The point is this: he who _____ sparingly will also _____ sparingly, and he who _____ bountifully will also _____ bountifully. Each one must do as he has made up his _____, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God _____ a cheerful _____.
