Scripture:

Exodus 20:12 "Honour your father and your mother, that your days may be long upon the land which the Lord your God is giving you. (NKJV)

Message:

Family relationships have always been vital and especially more so today where changes occur on a daily basis and you must know where you stand. It is heart-warming when you can depend upon members of your family to nurture and support you. Even more so, it is wonderful when you can depend upon your mother and father to be there for you in any situation. This is why we need to honour our parents and the elders also. It shows your thankfulness and gratitude to God for allowing them to be a part of your life. To honour them is to show respect and let your life reflect the positive influence they have upon you.

To honour your father and mother is also to honour Almighty God and when we honour God, He will shower His blessings on us. The verse says we will live long upon the earth and we will have lives that are rich and full and free. This is a blessing from the Lord. No good thing will He with-hold from us when we are obedient to Him. Honour God and give Him thanks for our fathers and mothers by honouring them. Do so and God will bless us tremendously. God has much in store for you, just claim it.

Activity:

Find words to express your love for your mother and father as well as how you feel as you honour them. One is done for you.
