Scripture:

Matthew 5:5 "Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth."
(RSV)

Message:

There are some persons who are so proud of themselves they think that they are always better than others. For them, their opinions and thoughts are better than those of other people. They think so highly of themselves that they look down, even scorn the ways of others. They do not consider others can contribute something positive in the situation. This can sometimes be a pity since we all can make a helpful input to make things better.

Being proud and so proud that you do not listen to others is not a positive thing especially when they are looking out for us. To achieve much in the sight of God, we must be meek or humble. For God to mold, shape and use us, we must be humble. If we are too proud, we would not hear when God gives us words of wisdom or guides us into the right way. Also, there is an inheritance for being humble or meek, and that is the earth. We were not promised a portion or some of the earth, but the earth itself and all of its resources when we are meek. Scripture also says those who humble themselves will be exalted.

Activity:

“Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth.”
