Scripture:

Psalm 32:5 Then I admitted my sin to you. I didn't cover up the wrong I had done. I said, "I will admit my lawless acts to the Lord." And you forgave the guilt of my sin. (NIRV)

Message:

As the saying goes, some of us like to be wrong and strong at the same time. Busy doing the wrong things, living the wrong life and we do not want anyone to comment about it or try to set us right. Some persons take pleasure in doing wrong or living on the wrong side of life. They want to be accountable to no one and no one must challenge their lifestyle. May I remind you we are all accountable to God for the things we say, the things we do and the life we live. We must remember our Creator wants us to have a right relationship with Him, thus we must at all times seek to do what is right in His sight.

However, at times we make mistakes, but we do not have to drown in these mistakes. There is the invitation to go to God and confess our sins, confess where we might have made the wrong turn or made the wrong choice. God in His mercy would not leave us to suffer, but would forgive us so that we can have another chance to live a clean life. Don't hide your sins from God, admit them and confess them to Him and God will forgive you of them all.
