Scripture:

Ecclesiastes 3:1 To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven. (IKJV)

Message:

Human nature dictates that we love to do our own thing in our own time. We even do the wrong thing at the wrong time Everyone must do what we say and we are not taking into consideration anyone else's opinion. Scripture warns us in Proverbs 4:5 to trust in the Lord with all your heart and to not lean on your own understanding. There are two strong elements here. The first of which is to trust God because He know what is best for us. Also, we need to acknowledge our way may not be the best way, but God always knows the true way.

There is a time and place for everything once it has been ordained by God. What may appear challenging once God's hand is in it, all will be possible. Be confident that once your actions are of God, it is the right thing to do and and He will find a way when there seems to be no way. Listen and be guided by His order, thus we know we can handle any situation that may arise. There is a time and season for everything, but we must trust God through it all. Trust Him to order our lives, trust Him to open doors for us and trust Him to show us the right way. His plan for us is the right one to follow.
