(NIRV)

Message:

There is nothing wrong in showing kindness to others. For that matter, if we can do a kind deed every day, it makes the quality of life definitely richer. Kindness is not only in thought, but also in deeds. It is not enough to think of being kind, but when we express it or show kindness to others, it is more effective. We think nothing of it when others are kind to us, so too we must be kind to others. We must also show our appreciation when others are kind to us, a simple ‘thank you’ goes a long way.

Kindness is not just to persons we know, but to as many persons who may benefit as a result of our sharing. To be kind is to be Godly and just as Jesus is kind to us, we must be kind to others. Jesus loves us with an everlasting love and does not choose when to be kind to us, but is kind to us always. We must express the love of Jesus to our friends, family, neighbours both near and far at all times. Just as Jesus takes care of our needs and bless us, we too must share the blessing with others and encourage them to pass on the blessing of kindness. Be affectionate, loving and kind to others as you would like them to be to you.
